

APR 263 : PLUMBING CODE & TEST PREPARATION I

---

Transcript title

Plumbing Code Test Prep I

Credits

4

Grading mode

Standard letter grades

Total contact hours

80

Other hours

80

Prerequisites

APR 262.

Course Description

This introductory course establishes a solid foundation in the Uniform Plumbing Code and essential plumbing concepts. Students will learn the core principles of code compliance, safety standards, and best practices for plumbing installation. Through a combination of theoretical instruction and practical exercises, learners will build the skills and confidence needed to interpret and apply the code in real-world scenarios. Designed for apprentices starting their preparation for the Oregon Building Codes Journeyman Plumbing exam, this course provides the groundwork for success in the plumbing trade.

Course learning outcomes

1. Demonstrate a foundational understanding of the Uniform Plumbing Code and its purpose.
2. Apply basic plumbing theory to interpret and troubleshoot simple systems.
3. Identify and address common code compliance issues in entry-level plumbing scenarios.
4. Develop initial skills for professional plumbing practices and exam preparation.

Content outline

1. Introduction to the Uniform Plumbing Code
2. Basic Plumbing Theory
3. Code Compliance Fundamentals
4. Oregon Building Codes Journeyman Plumbing Exam Basics
5. Practical Plumbing Applications

Required materials

Materials not required.