Course Description

Introduces relief printmaking techniques and the art of producing multiple prints. Distinguishes the hand-pulled print from mechanical duplication, situating the art of printmaking within a historic context. Integrates drawing, design principles, and conceptual frameworks as a uniquely independent form of artistic communication. Repeatable for credit.

Course learning outcomes

1. Understand the history of printmaking, including its contemporary implications.
2. Demonstrate proficiency in the use of hand-carving, inking, and burnishing tools.
3. Create hand-pulled prints that integrate drawing, design principles, and conceptual frameworks.
4. Use media-specific terminology to receive and provide feedback.
