Course Description

Practicum is closely supervised opportunity to implement professional skills, knowledge and attitudes presented in prior Behavioral Health coursework. Supports experience working on-site in a behavioral health agency to integrate field and classroom experience. Students also attend a weekly seminar and meet individually with both the practicum instructor and the site supervisor throughout the quarter. Students are required to have a placement confirmed prior to the term they decide to begin. Addiction Counseling students please note: 1,000 hours supervised experience are required before taking the Oregon Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor I exam.
