

CJ 210 : CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION I

Transcript title

Criminal Investigation I

Credits

3

Grading mode

Standard letter grades

Total contact hours

30

Lecture hours

30

Course Description

Examines history, fundamentals and scientific resources involved in criminal investigation. Emphasizes practical aspects of the investigator's approach to criminal acts, crime scene, gathering facts and information, seizing evidence, reporting the total investigation and presenting evidence within court.

Course learning outcomes

1. Students will become familiar with multiple techniques and procedures involving crime scene processing and management.
2. Students will become familiar with the scientific services available to the criminal justice professional to aid in case investigation.
3. Students will understand various forms of evidence including court rules of evidence.
4. Students will be introduced to various interviewing techniques of witnesses, suspects, and victims.
5. Students will be introduced to techniques and legal rules involving the arrest/detention of suspects.

General education/Related instruction lists

- Social Science