

ENGLISH - ASSOCIATE OF ARTS TRANSFER (AAT)

Description

The Associate of Arts Transfer meets Oregon transfer degree requirements, allowing students to transfer to an Oregon public university and some out-of-state universities having met all lower-division general education requirements.

English majors with a solid humanities foundation and strong writing, reading, critical thinking, and research skills are sought after in many careers, including advertising, business, public administration, communication and media, computer-based information and education, software and web development, social services, government, law and criminal justice, and teaching/education.

This degree is part of a statewide Major Transfer Map (MTM) agreement that identifies the community college courses needed to transfer to any Oregon public university as a junior seeking a Bachelor of Arts in English.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the degree, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate understanding of literary works in context, including the ways texts engage notions of genre, culture, history, class, race, gender, and/or sexuality.
2. Use a variety of written, verbal, and/or multimedia forms to respond to, analyze, and/or produce texts.

Entrance Requirements

While this degree has no formal entrance requirements, individual courses may have prerequisites which must be met before enrollment.
