

ENGLISH LITERATURE - ASSOCIATE OF ARTS TRANSFER (AAT)

Description

The Associate of Arts Transfer meets Oregon transfer degree requirements, allowing students to transfer to an Oregon public university and some out-of-state universities having met all lower-division general education requirements.

English majors with a solid humanities foundation and strong writing, reading, critical thinking, and research skills are sought after in many careers, including advertising, business, public administration, communication and media, computer-based information and education, software and web development, social services, government, law and criminal justice, and teaching/education.

This degree is part of a statewide Major Transfer Map (MTM) agreement that identifies the community college courses needed to transfer to any Oregon public university as a junior seeking a Bachelor of Arts in English Literature.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the degree, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate understanding of literary works in context, including the ways texts engage notions of genre, culture, history, class, race, gender, and sexuality.
- Use a variety of written, verbal, and multimodal forms to respond to and analyze literary texts and contexts.

Entrance Requirements

While this degree has no formal entrance requirements, individual courses may have prerequisites which must be met before enrollment.

Electives 47

This may include up to 12 credits of career and technical education (CTE) courses designated by COCC as acceptable.

It is recommended students pursue these options:

1. Take courses that will apply to their minor of choice and that will transfer to the Oregon public university of their choice. Work with an advisor.
2. Take courses that will apply to the general education requirements or major at the Oregon public university of their choice. Work with an advisor.
3. Take electives to reach 90 credits, that will transfer to the Oregon public university of their choice. Work with an advisor.

Total Credits 90-97

¹ WOU: American or British survey courses count toward major requirements.

² EOU and SOU both courses count towards major requirements. At UO one course will count towards major requirements. At PSU up to 12 credits of 200-level ENG literature can count toward the major.

³ At OSU this course only counts toward the major and students will need to take another Arts and Letters course.

⁴ Second Lab Science course counts towards UNST placement at PSU.

⁵ Not required at PSU for the BA; will count toward UNST placement.

⁶ At PSU, up to 12 credits of 200 level ENG. Lit. can count towards the major.

- ⁷ At EOU, PS, UO and WOU this fulfills both a degree requirement and some general education.
- ⁸ PSU offers a Bachelor of Science in English which does not require 2nd language.
- ⁹ Students without any second language credits should begin the 100-level sequence in their first year at a community college. Students should complete language requirements before transferring. Students transferring to EOU should be aware that they only offer Spanish. Students may also be able to demonstrate proficiency through an exam or other means.

Advising Notes

Lower-division requirements for majors, minors, and related specializations in English/literature vary among four-year institutions. To make wise elective course choices, students are advised to work closely with their advisors, consult college catalogs of the institution to which they wish to transfer, and determine whether one or more of the following courses should be elected to fulfill degree objectives.

Education programs may require or recommend:

ENG 221 Introduction to Children's Literature

English/literature and humanities degree programs may also require or recommend one of more courses in:
